

David's story continues this week, here's a quick preview:

A GIANT THREAT
1 Samuel 17

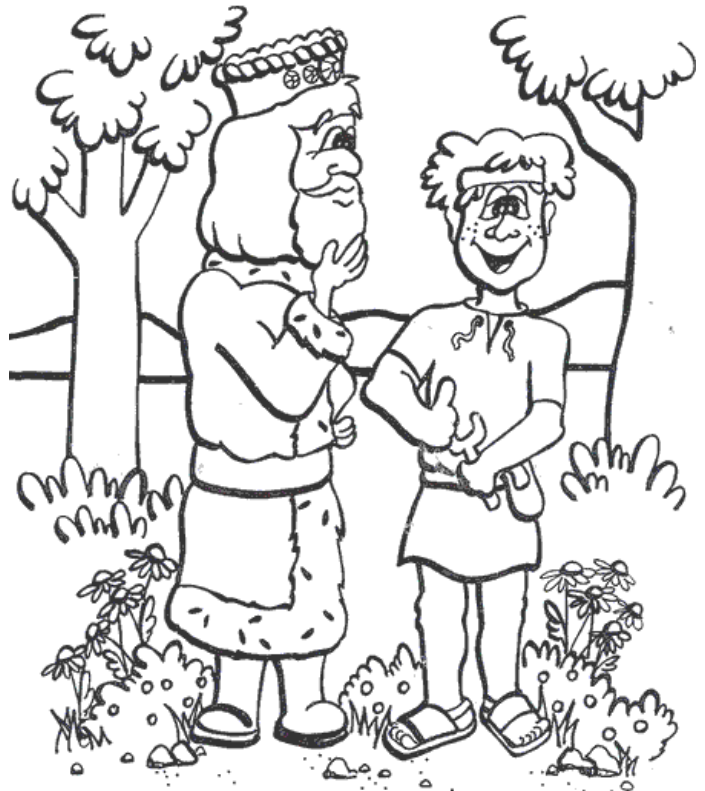

King Saul fought against the Israelite enemies. One giant of a man challenged Saul's army. His name was Goliath.

Goliath was over nine feet tall. He shouted, "If your man can beat me, we will be your servants. If I beat you, you will be our servants."

No one wanted to fight Goliath, because he was too strong. One day, David came to bring food for his brothers in the army.

David heard Goliath shouting. He said to Saul, "I will fight the giant." But Saul said, "You are only a boy."

Come along to hear what happens next.

Last Hullabaloo we heard the start of David's story:

A NEW KING FOR ISRAEL
1 Samuel 16

God sent Samuel to a man named Jesse. God told Samuel one of Jesse's sons would be the new king.

Samuel saw the oldest son, and thought he would be king. But God said, "No, you're looking at the outside. I look at the heart."

Samuel met seven sons, but to each one God said, "No." Then Samuel asked Jesse if he had any more sons.

The youngest son came in from tending the sheep. His name was David, and he was only a boy. But God said, "He is the one."

Memory Verse:

Man looks on the outside, but God looks on the heart (1 Samuel 16:7)
